

FINDERS

An Online Skip-Locate Service Providing Current Data

Designed by and for collections professionals, FINDERS® puts key telephone contacts at your fingertips. FINDERS automatically delivers current identification information including telephone numbers (when available) for skipped accounts — plus names and telephone numbers of creditors reporting credit activity or inquiring about your customer.

Prioritize Collection Efforts. Boost Productivity. Quickly Recover Debt.

- Searches the Equifax nationwide credit reporting database of more than 200 million consumer files for locate information you can use
- Delivers available ID information, including Social Security number and known aliases, the most recently reported customer telephone number and employer, plus current and previous addresses (even post office boxes and rural routes)
- Gives names and telephone numbers of creditors reporting activity within the past 24 months — plus your customer's account numbers, account types and most recent activity dates — for fast follow-up with your customer's other creditors
- Delivers names and telephone numbers of creditors who have inquired about your customer within the past 12 months — for finding new address and telephone information on your customer
- Warns when a bankruptcy is found so that you can stop collection efforts
- Optional Social Security Number Verified Indicator confirms whether several major Equifax customers (not the Social Security Administration) have provided the same Social Security number for the same identity
- Optional fraud protection via SAFESCAN®, Equifax's cost-effective fraud prevention system that automatically monitors inquiries and alerts you to known or potentially fraudulent information elements
